Bill and Sally Rea opened Grandma Lee's Chowder House last April in the old Chow-dee-do-order Building.

Grandma Lee's has especially good clam chowder and homemade pies, baked every morning. Bill and Sally pride themselves in serving superior food at very low prices. Besides chowder, huge tacos and hamburgers, roast beef, turkey, salads, and great breakfasts are also available.

Bill and Sally moved here because they love the area and its people. Stop by and meet them soon.

Gran'ma Jeano's Flutter Bye

1021 Broadway (The only
Broadway restaurant East of Hwy.
101)

Granma Jeano's Flutter Bye was started in December of 1984 by Jean and George Bergamo. Granma Jeano's began as a 'food to go' restaurant and gift shop. It is now a deli-cafe, gift shop and food to go, and we also do catering. We specialize in "Kentucky Cookin'" — southern drop biscuits, chicken and homemade noodles, barbecued chicken wings, and more. In the future, we plan to utilize our upstairs area for private "special event" dining rooms. We'll put tables and benches outdoors and will also be known as Granma Jeano's Deli Garden.

History of Building & Property:

The property had been bought to use for a repair shop for wood stoves for the tent city in the summers. Then the building now used was built in 1930 for $4200. It is now worth $42,000.
